

Programme

Online & In-person, March 28 - 29, 2023
9:00 AM to 12:30 PM EST

Time zones:

CANADA (EDT) UTC-4 hours
ITALY (CEST) UTC+2 hours

Day 1:

March 27, Piazza Armerina
Officer Cadets and University Students

Students from participating Military Academies and Universities are invited to a special full day programme of knowledge sharing and exchange. For more information on this programme contact:
johnmacehannan@outlook.com

Day 2:

March 28th, 2023 in person all day, in Piazza Armerina online 9:00 AM -12:30 EDT or 15:00 to 18:30 CEST

9:00-9:10 AM

Welcome Address by Mr. Stephen Gregory, Founder, International Forum for Peace, Security & Prosperity

9:10-9:30 AM

Forum Keynote Address

9:40 -10:55 AM

Panel 1: Understanding the information environment: The complexity and velocity of disinformation took on new dimensions with the advent of social media. The panel will explore the contemporary information environment; better understand the disinformation, propaganda and misinformation challenges; how to effectively counter disinformation.

11:05-12:00 AM

Panel 2: An historical case: OP HUSKY: Disinformation campaigns were widely used in WWII. The panel will explore the disinformation campaigns and strategies at work leading up to, during and after the Allied invasion of Sicily in July 1943.

12:00-12:10 PM

Day 1 Closing Remarks

Our partners

Day 3:

March 29th, 2023 in person all day, in Piazza Armerina online 9:00 AM -12:30 EDT or 15:00 to 18:30 CEST

9:00-9:25 AM

Opening Remarks

9:40 to 10:55 AM

Panel 3: Disinformation – Contemporary case studies: The pandemic, democratic elections, ongoing wars and military deployments provide significant opportunities to explore disinformation in today’s world. The panel will explore and analyse current examples of disinformation campaigns that threaten peace around the world.

11:05 to 12:10 AM

Panel 4: PSP Conference Contest winning students’ presentations

12:10-12:25 PM

Forum Closing Remarks

Our partners

